British Commercial representation Overseas

The Commercial Departments of the British Embassies, High Commission Offices and Consulates listed herein can be of considerable help to the British business man travelling abroad on export business. They can assist him with introductions, advice on local conditions and help generally in achieving the purpose of his visit. But they are better able to help if told in advance about the visit, its purpose and the nature of any assistance likely to be required of them. Such advance notification to Commercial Departments is best sent through the Export Services and Promotions Division or a Regional Office of the Department of Trade and Industry and intending business travellers are advised to contact one or other of these offices (addresses and telephone numbers on page viii) at an early stage in arranging visits abroad. These offices will not only notify the visits to the Commercial Departments concerned but can provide travellers with information about overseas markets before departure.

On arrival overseas the business traveller is advised to telephone the Commercial Department to fix an appointment with the appropriate commercial officer.

'Hints to Business Men' booklets are available for most of the countries listed. British business men who intend visiting any of the countries on export business may obtain copies free of charge from the nearest Regional Office or from Export Services and Promotions Division (Tel. 01-248 5757, Ext. 7146) (Telex 886143).

Poste Restante and Telex facilities: business men visiting overseas markets may, if they wish, have their mail addressed care of the Commercial Department of the British Embassy/High Commission/ Consulate in the country they are visiting. This facility is available during normal business hours only and business men intending to use it are requested to give adequate notice to the overseas Commercial Department beforehand, or alternatively advise their nearest Department of Trade and Industry Regional Office or the Export Services and Promotions Division in London. Where public telex facilities are not freely available, Commercial Departments will, if possible, allow visiting business men who wish urgently to get in touch with their firms to use the post's Telex facilities on a repayment basis.

This list is prepared by Export Services and Promotions Division of the British Overseas Trade Board and published quarterly in Trade and Industry. Inquiries relating to the list should be made to Export Services and Promotions Division at Export House, 50 Ludgate Hill, London, EC4M 7HU. (Tel. 01-248 5757, Ext. 7113).

British Trade Correspondents

NOTE: The * denotes that the entry has been amended since last published in April 1973.

TRADE correspondents generally give part-time service to the Department of Trade and Industry. Often they are Civil Servants who have been selected to act in this capacity in addition to their normal duties; in certain other territories local businessmen undertake these functions. The extent to which British Trade Correspondents can assist British business visitors is therefore limited.
